How to Have a Life that Is Heaven for All Eternity

In order to have a life that is Heaven for all eternity, there are 4 things you need to know and 4 things you need to do.

The Four Things You Need to Know

- 1. You need to recognize that there is a problem that needs a solution.*
- 2. You need to know that the solution is the Plan of Action created by the Source.*
- 3. You need to know the general parameters of the Source Plan.*
- 4. You need to know how to work with the Source in implementing the Source Plan.*

The Four Things You Need to Do

- 1. You need to decide to follow the lead of the Source to learn about building Heaven in accordance with the Source Plan.*
- 2. You need to invest in a life that is Heaven for all eternity.*
- 3. You need to start connecting with the Source on the Inner and Outer Plane on a daily basis.*
- 4. You need to learn how to be a Heaven Agent while working alongside the Source to build a life and a world that is Heaven.*

Now let's talk about these essential things that you need to know and do in greater depth.

Let's start with the things you need to know.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

1) You need to recognize that there is a problem that needs a solution.

It only stands to reason that until you recognize that there is a problem, you aren't ready to work with a solution.

Now it is obvious that life is not Heaven – Heaven being the highest level of happiness that is possible. It's also obvious that life has never been Heaven and doesn't look likely to be Heaven in the future if things continue on the way they are now.

If you are content with the scarcity, disease, wars, crime, suffering and struggle of the world, then I guess this isn't a problem for you. But if you have within you an inner sense that life was supposed to be more and that the Heaven of a world in which everyone has everything that they need and every life is nurtured and fulfilled, is a world you would rather have, then you are one of those who would like a life that is Heaven, if it were possible.

If you would like a life that is Heaven, then you are ready to move onto the second thing you need to know.

2) You need to know that the solution is the Plan of Action created by the Source.

To get to this understanding, you need to know something about the Source, what has happened in the Creation that has led to the troubles we have today, and why the Plan of Action created by the Source makes sense.

The short version is that it takes an intelligence that can know all things, be in all places at the same time, and that has infinite power, to create and back up a Plan of Action that is comprehensive enough to bring the highest level of happiness to every single being in the entire Creation. This means that one being's happiness contributes to the happiness of another being instead of detracting from it. This takes an intelligence that can calculate an infinite number of variables and which has the power to bring through the miracles that make such a Heaven possible.

The only intelligence that can do this is the Creator – the Source.

This is the reason why, when the Creation was first begun, the Source created a Plan of Action for how to build Heaven in the world and beings agreed to follow this Plan of Action.

When the Creation was first beginning beings understood that they had a limited range of intelligence and power and could not create a comprehensive Plan that would take care of the needs of every single being in the Creation. They agreed to follow the lead of the Source and build a life that was Heaven in accordance with the Source Plan.

The Source then created a world for them. After the Creation was completed, some beings began to use the intelligence that had been given them to try to develop their own Plan of Action and create a Heaven that they designed.

They conceived of a world that was mean-spirited, competitive, exploitative, and abusive. They began to prey on the beings who were trying to follow the Source Plan and injure them and throw them off course in their attempts to work with the Source.

In time, many beings lost their sense of direction and began to forget the Source Plan and how to connect to the Source. As they became more and more disconnected from the Source, they became more and more dysfunctional and prone to the hardships that arise from a disconnected life.

In time the Creation devolved into the World of Suffering we have today where every life is touched by disease, crime, war, scarcity – of money, love, good times, opportunities and the like, and the suffering that all of this brings.

As science arose there was hope that it would fix what was wrong in the world. Instead it accelerated the destruction. Out of science came pollution that is rapidly destroying our habitat and the weapons of ultimate destruction such as nuclear bombs and chemical and germ warfare.

Now on our Earth we are teetering on the brink of environmental and political disaster – no wiser about how to curb the greed, violence, competition, and mental derangement that keeps driving the crime, the wars, and the abuse that flares up in families and communities.

All the while, however, the Source has been capable of providing a Plan of Action for how to get out of the mess that has been created and finally build a life that is Heaven. The problem has been, that when the Source knocked on the door of peoples' inner awareness with the message of this Ultimate Solution, people were so accustomed to tuning out the Source and listening instead to the teachings of the culture, that they were unable to listen to what the Source had to tell them.

Finally, the Source decided to send a manifestation of Itself into the world to talk directly to the beings in the language of a Manifest Being. I am this manifestation. I have come to tell you directly in a human language that you can readily understand what you have been unable to understand from the communications sent to you on the Spiritual Level of reality.

The message I bring is this:

All you have to do to have a life that is Heaven for all eternity is to say "Yes" to the Source and follow the lead of the Source in building Heaven in accordance with the Source Plan.

3) You need to know the general parameters of the Source Plan.

The Source Plan calls for beginning by getting your Connection to the Source back up and running. The profound Disconnect that has occurred has blocked the lines of communication between you and the Source for many lifetimes. We have to work on rebuilding these lines of communication so that you can hear what is coming to you from the Source about the Source Plan on both the Inner and Outer Plane.

While my manifestation in a human form on the Outer Plane makes it easier for you to understand Source Communications since I am delivering them to you in a human language, it is only when you can hear what my Inner Plane Manifestation is telling you on the Spiritual Level of reality that you become capable of building Heaven in every moment of your life.

Once your Connection with the Source is working again, then the next step in the Source Plan is for us to work on building this Connection until it becomes the Heaven that you experience in your life. If your focus is on the love connection with the Source and only on this connection, then you and your life will flower into the Heaven they were created to be.

Out of this flowering will come a life that is Source-Connected, a life that is blessed with the miracles of Made in Heaven Health, Made in Heaven Material Abundance, Made in Heaven Relationships, and Made in Heaven Success.

As long as your focus is on the Source Connection and not on the benefits of a Source-Connected Life, then you will continue to grow richer in the joy of the Source Connection. The miraculous will be a natural part of your life and love and fulfillment will flow like rivers through every aspect of your life experiences.

The Heaven of the Source Connection Experience will only grow with every new experience and an infinity of Heaven for all eternity will be yours as long as you nurture and sustain the Source Connection.

4) You need to know how to work with the Source in Implementing the Source Plan.

There are 4 things that you need to do in order to work with the Source effectively to implement the Source Plan.

To find out what these 4 things are, just read the next section.

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO

1) You need to decide to follow the lead of the Source to learn about building Heaven in accordance with the Source Plan.

Do you want to have a life that is Heaven for all eternity?

If your answer is “Yes” then you need to know that it is only when you genuinely agree to follow the lead of the Source, that I can lead you out of the entrapping energies of the Cultural Story into the Heaven that your life can be.

This is how it was for the members of the 14 Prototype Communities. They made a decision to follow my lead out of the hardships of their world into the miracle of an abundant, love-based Community – a Community that eventually developed a Miracle Economy where all of their material needs manifested from the Spiritual Level to the Physical Level without farming and manufacturing.

They knew that there could be no fence sitting – that if I was to deliver to them this miracle then they had to be ready to receive it and not hold on to their old ways of living that had never brought them Heaven.

While it is common sense that you can't set sail on an ocean voyage and remain behind on the shore at the same time, you'd be surprised how many people try to do just this when it comes to building Heaven in their lives. They try to do some of the old and some of the new and hope to have Heaven as a result.

While you can sprinkle a few moments of Heaven on your life, you can never have a life that is Heaven unless you make a decision to do what it really takes to have a life such as this.

What it takes is being willing to:

- follow my lead as I teach you how to get Source Guidance and build Heaven in accordance with the Source Plan and guide you through the dangers of this world to the safety of a Miracle-Based Way of Life
- balance the exchange so the miracles that are gifts from the Source can ground in your level of materiality
- do whatever it takes, knowing that if a course of action is in the Source Plan there will be resources that have been created for you by the Source to enable you to successfully complete this course of action.

This means not siding with your left brain that parrots cultural platitudes about how you “can’t get there from here”. Where there is no known way to get there, I produce a miracle and train you how to use it and we get there despite the fact that, in ordinary human terms, this might have been impossible.

This is why you need to follow my lead because the path I take is a Path of Miracles and no one but the Source knows how to create such a path and lead you along it.

There are no set of techniques or formulas that will enable you to build a life that is Heaven. It takes moment-to-moment Source Guidance and the miracles of the Source to build and sustain a Miracle-Based Way of Living. This is why you need to master the art and science of receiving Source Guidance on the Inner Plane where you can receive guidance whenever you need it.

Part of what it takes is being willing to roll up your sleeves and work alongside me to build Heaven not just in your own individual life but in the world you live in. My Mission in this life is to build a world that is Heaven, not just Heaven in the lives of a scattering of interested individuals.

The Prototype Communities have proven that Heaven is possible even in this troubled world. They have also developed the Templates that make it very accessible to those starting on the task.

Our work now is to build a Universal Made in Heaven Community that will provide for you the security of a Universe at peace and future lifetimes where you can be assured that you will not be born into a war zone or a place a famine and disease. What you work with me to correct during this, my last lifetime in a physical form, will be your investment in the quality of your life in this lifetime and in all of your lifetimes to come.

Now is the time to make your decision.

Do you want a life that is Heaven for all eternity or are you willing to put up with the disease, tragedies, crime, wars, scarcity and suffering that touches every life in the world of today?

If you want to travel the path to a life that is Heaven, then make your decision and let me know that you want to sign on. I’ll get in contact with you and we can begin our work together.

1) If you are clear that you are ready to begin, then just email me at:

sdaniel@theheavenproject.net

- 2) If you feel that you need to learn more in order to be ready to make this decision, then I recommend that you check out “Connecting”, the Directory of the Points of Connection to the Source provided by The Miracle School.

Connecting provides you with a myriad of ways to Connect to Source Love and Guidance and to experience very directly the miracles that the Source creates to manifest a life that is Heaven.

Some of these Points of Connection are free and are a good place for you to begin.

In Connecting you will find Miracle Broadcasts, Written Miracle Transmissions which include Source Communications and a Heaven Agent to Heaven Agent Blog, Miracle Tools, and Miracle-Based Trainings. You will also find information on how to Connect through At-a-Distance Source Interventions, Miracle Recordings, Private Consultations, Webinars, and Maui Intensives.

The important thing is to make a decision and then start working with me to receive the very individualized Source Guidance that enables you to know how to proceed to build the Source Connection and a Source-Connected Life.

NOTE:

Once you have made a decision to work with the Source to build a life that is Heaven, I will, in the initial Free Consultation, help you to chart a path to achieve this goal that is correct for you given your Mission in this life and your current life circumstances. While I outline in #2 – #4 the fastest route to building a life that is Heaven, an alternate route is possible as long as it is in keeping with the Source Plan. For instance, you might need to start with a Soul Reading to give you a full overview of your life before you begin any of the Foundation of Heaven Interventions.

For information on how to contact me you can go to Step 7 of the Journey of Discovery entitled “Next Step” at www.themiracleschool.net/journey/step7 and you will find a link to a form there that will enable you to make the Connection on the Outer Plane.

- 2) You need to invest in a life that is Heaven for all eternity.

The first step in investing in a life that is Heaven, is understanding how to build a life that is Heaven. Your investment in this understanding is where it all begins. To help you get an overview of what is involved, I'll introduce you to the Foundation of Heaven Interventions and the Miracle-Based Training that is available to you through The Miracle School.

But before I describe what is involved in building a life that is Heaven, it's important that you get a clearer idea of what I am talking about when I speak of the Inner Plane, the Spiritual Level of Reality. Only when you understand this level of reality will it make sense to you how the Source is thinking about the project of building Heaven in your life and in the world.

THE INNER PLANE

The Inner Plane is a world like the Outer Plane World only it is made of spiritual energy instead of physical matter. It is possible to travel within it and build within it just like you would in the Physical World. The one difference is that what you build is made of spiritual energy instead of matter. The principle of manifestation is that what you build of spiritual energies will set into motion the causal forces that manifest the same thing made of matter in the Physical Level of Reality. For this reason, it is necessary to build on the Inner Plane what you want to manifest on the Outer Plane.

The Inner Plane contains many different layers, dimensions, energy fields, and energy phenomena that are important for you to understand. The "you" that exists in a Spiritual Energy Body in this vast world travels in this reality and experiences a parallel life to the life the physical "you" experiences in your physical body. The experiences that the spiritual "you" has in the Spiritual Level of Reality directly affect how the physical "you" thinks, feels, and acts and the physical well-being of the physical body. In fact, the world that the spiritual "you" creates in the Spiritual Level of Reality determines the quality of the life that the physical "you" can have on the Physical Level of Reality.

Just as you need to secure a safe and comfortable place for yourself in the Outer Plane World, you need to secure a safe and comfortable place for yourself in the Inner Plane World. If you don't secure a good place for yourself in the Inner Plane World, no matter how materially comfortable your place is in the Outer Plane World, you will experience the profound fear and discomfort that the "you" that lives in your Spiritual Energy Body on the Inner Plane is experiencing.

What kind of life you build for yourself on the Inner Plane is also going to be reflected in what you can build on the Outer Plane. For instance, if you amass spiritual energies for financial abundance on the Inner Plane, then you will very easily manifest material financial abundance on the Outer Plane. If you are bankrupt on the Inner Plane, you will find yourself losing out economically on the Outer Plane as well.

This is because what you build on the Inner Plane is what you will have on the Outer Plane.

The Inner Plane is where fully 90% of what you experience in your life happens. This is because the spiritual "you" represents 90% of your consciousness. Only 10% of your consciousness pertains to the experiences of the physical "you".

Young children see and relate to this level as an integrated and normal part of their lives. As they grow older they learn from the admonishments of adults that what they are seeing and feeling on the Inner Plane is “imaginary” and not to be spoken about as if it were “real”. Over time they learn to tune out this level of reality and adopt the party line of the adult world that only what you see with your five senses is “real”. Even in cultures that are more open to what happens on the Inner Plane, most adults are not able to track the action or know what to do about what they see happening on this level. This is due to the lack of training in how to understand this level of reality.

The truth of the matter is that what you experience in every moment of your day is more about what is happening on the Spiritual Level of Reality than on what is happening on the Physical Level of your reality. Your Spiritual Energy Body is actively interacting with the Spiritual Energy Bodies of others on the Inner Plane, in a world in which what happens to your Spiritual Energy Body affects what happens to your Physical Body. For instance, if your Spiritual Energy Body is injured on the Inner Plane, your Physical Body will feel the pain of this injury. If the injury is substantial, the Physical Body will begin to malfunction since it depends on the health of the Spiritual Energy Body to sustain its physical level of functioning.

If the “you” who exists on the Inner Plane is experiencing great joy and fulfillment, then the “you” who exists on the Outer Plane in your human body, will feel awash with this joyful feeling. It is times like this when people often comment that they don’t really know why they are so happy but they just are really happy. This is because the cause of their happiness has more to do with what is happening on the Inner Plane than what is happening on the Outer Plane.

The Inner Plane has been an ungoverned, unlawful free-for-all where the Spiritual Energy Bodies of people relate without any restriction on the expression of their desires and emotions. The thin veneer of civilized behavior that is scarcely maintained on the Outer Plane is completely lacking in most beings on the Inner Plane. Because of this it has been very difficult for most people to have any real control over the quality of their lives. Living in the Inner Plane has been like living in an uncivilized social milieu where there is no law enforcement and those who wish to do harm can get away with doing harm and bringing suffering and loss to others.

The key concept is that what you experience on the Inner Plane will affect your thoughts and emotions on the Outer Plane. Conversely, what you feel on the Outer Plane, will affect what the “you” on the Inner Plane is feeling as well. The main idea is that you are more than your physical body. You are a spirit who lives in a Spiritual Reality at the same time that you as a human are living in a Physical Reality. In fact, as I mentioned earlier, the Spiritual Reality takes up 90% of your energies with only 10% of them going to the experiences that you are having in the Physical Reality.

Many people think that their spirit is somehow in the background of their life and is called into action only when they die and their spirit is what is left. The truth is that the spirit is leading an active parallel life to the life being lived in the physical body. What happens to the spirit – operating through the Spiritual Energy Body – is felt deeply and profoundly in the aspect of the person that is living in the physical form.

To bring the reality of this into focus, let me give you a few examples.

I have seen couples who are in conflict on the Outer Plane who work through their differences and try to communicate better with one another but still find that they can't get over their intense feeling of being at odds with one another. It is only when they see what they are doing to one another on the Inner Plane that their intense feelings begin to make sense to them.

For instance, the husband might be limiting his controlling behaviors on the Outer Plane but might be throttling the wife on the Inner Plane every time she doesn't do what he wants her to do. Or the wife might be beating the husband on the Inner Plane even though on the Outer Plane she is behaving in a very demure and civilized manner.

The body language of the husband and wife directly reflect this kind of Inner Plane interaction. In the case of Inner Plane attack I can see the spouse being attacked physically cringing and looking pained and distressed. When the attack stops on the Inner Plane, I notice their body language change. They begin to relax and look relieved, happier, and more open to their spouse.

Many marriages can be saved if the Inner Plane part of the conflict is resolved and the couple is given some training in how to relate to one another in a constructive way on the Inner Plane.

Now let's bring into focus how knowledge of what is happening on the Inner Plane relates to your project of building a life that is Heaven.

If you were to liken building Heaven in your life to building a physical house, your first step would be to find the land on which to build your house. In the Outer Plane World you would need to buy the piece of real estate before you begin to build.

In the Inner Plane World the Source gifts you the Spiritual Land on which you can build your Heaven Home but you have to travel to this place on the Inner Plane and be capable of connecting to it.

With the project of building an Outer Plane House you would first clear the land and then build a foundation for your house. Then you would build the house itself.

With the project of building an Inner Plane Heaven Home, you don't need to clear the land because the Source gifts you a perfect place in the Made in Heaven World on which to build your home. All you have to do is to build the foundation and the home upon this foundation.

In order to help you travel to the place on the Inner Plane where your Heaven Land awaits you and to be able to build the Foundation of Heaven that is needed, I have created Seven At-a-Distance Source Interventions that provide you with the ability to accomplish this. With these At-a-Distance Source Interventions, you can build for the spiritual "you" the Heaven that the spiritual "you" requires in order to be happy. When the spiritual "you" is happy then the physical "you" will be happy as well. Further, as the spiritual "you" builds a Heaven Home and the riches and comforts of a Made in Heaven Life, this will enable the physical "you" to build a home in the Physical World and enjoy the prosperity and comforts of a Made in Heaven Life on the Physical Level of Reality.

The key understanding is that when you invest in building Heaven on the Inner Plane, then you will enjoy it on both the Inner and Outer Planes.

So – I'll briefly sketch out the Seven Foundation of Heaven Interventions. In Step Five of the Journey of Discovery you can find out more about these Interventions.

THE MERGING INTO THE LIGHT INTERVENTION

To understand what this Intervention is designed to accomplish, you need to know that there are two layers or zones in the Spiritual World.

In the lower layer, there are low vibrational, dark energies that manifest the disease, crime, accidents, wars, tragedies, scarcity, and suffering of the world as we know it. This is what I call the Hell Zone because it manifests a World of Suffering where bad things happen to good people and those who are willing to do harm to others often get their way and prosper at the expense of those they harm.

From the Source Perspective it is a Hell Zone because even though there are some good experiences that can be had even in this low vibrational energy, there is an abundance of Hell Experiences by which I mean experiences of senseless suffering and loss that cast a shadow on everyone living at this level of vibration. To the Source, anything that is not of Heaven is some gradation of Hell – an experience of suffering that damages the sensitive Spiritual Equipment that enables a being to connect to the Source and experience the Heaven of this Connection.

For a lot of people the Hell Zone is just life as they know it. They try to find whatever happiness they can amidst the problems around them and never even think that there might be a better way to live.

For the Source it is the antithesis of the Heaven that beings set out to create in the beginning of the Creation. It is a nightmare that would never have happened had beings kept their end of their agreement with the Source at the beginning of the Creation to build a world in keeping with the Source Plan. To the Source the only life worth living is a life that is Heaven where there is no scarcity, disease, violence, or cruelty on any level.

Above the layer of the Hell Zone is the Heaven Zone. This is a very high vibrational energy field that is flooded by the Light of Source Love and Source Intelligence. In this layer miracles manifest easily and it is possible to work with the miracles to build an abundant, disease-free, love-based way of life that is Source-Connected. This is the layer in which Heaven was originally designed to be built. When beings started building their own idea of Heaven they dropped vibrationally below this layer and ended up in the low vibrational layer of the Hell Zone.

Many people have moments in their lives when they manage to lift up out of the Hell Zone into the Heaven Zone for a brief period of time. But generally they lose the inspiration that got them there and begin to think in their old ways, accepting and expecting the negativity of the world to return to their lives, and they sink back down into the Hell Zone. Their expectation of suffering is then validated and they concur that this is what life is and their brief foray into the Heaven Zone was just a lucky happy moment instead of the viable alternative way of life that it really is.

Some people manage to become Source-Connected enough to rise up out of the Hell Zone and stay in the Heaven Zone. But, for the majority of beings, the spiritual skills needed to escape from the Hell Zone altogether and to never fall back into it have been lacking.

In order to make it possible for all beings to rise up out of the Hell Zone into the Heaven Zone, the Source has created The Merging into the Light Source Intervention that lifts them up and keeps them up at the level of the Heaven Zone where they can begin to heal from the damage incurred while living in the Hell Zone and begin to learn how to build a life that is Heaven.

The Merging into the Light Source Intervention helps beings rise up out of the Hell Zone once and for all and arrive in the Heaven Zone where the building of Heaven can occur. For those who have, through a spiritual awakening, already arrived in the Heaven Zone, it helps them to move more rapidly through the layers of the Heaven Zone to the Made in Heaven World that the Source has created for them at Level 14.

Just as it is commonsense to not build your house in a swamp when you could build it on dry land, so it is commonsense to not build your Heaven House in the swamp of the Hell Zone but to build it on the dry and beautiful land of the Heaven Zone.

Another way to think of it is – would you willingly buy real estate in a crime riddled slum when you could buy real estate in a beautiful, safe, and peaceful place instead?

Again it is spiritual commonsense. And yet many struggle and slave all the days of their lives trying to build Heaven in the swamp of negativity in the Hell Zone wondering why they never really feel happy even if they have built a mansion and amassed millions. The fact of the matter is that money can't buy you Heaven. If you build in the Hell Zone your life will be bedeviled by the specters of the diseases of the mind, body, and spirit, accidents, crime, and misfortunes of all sorts. You will have no peace from these dark forces no matter how much money or education you have.

The only way to get away from this bad crowd of negative energies is to move out of the place where they reside to a place where the vibration is too high for them to survive. In this clean and clear Spiritual Space you can build the Heaven that your life can be without them in the picture. You can then focus on clearing the negative energies that you have brought with you from your former associations with the Hell Zone. While this is a clean up process that may take time even after arriving in the Heaven Zone, it is much easier to do this clean up in the Heaven Zone than in the Hell Zone where the messes are accumulating faster than you can clean them up.

THE INVESTING IN A LIFE THAT IS HEAVEN INTERVENTION

By the time you have escaped from the Hell Zone and are beginning to relax and unwind from the grim energies and experiences of this level of vibration, you are ready to think of the possibility of Heaven with a new sense of the reality of it – now that you are in the Heaven Zone where it can occur.

Now it's time to find out more about the terrain in the Heaven Zone. There are 17 Levels of the Heaven Zone.

Many beings have now awakened and have already lifted up into Level 1 of the Heaven Zone. The Merging into the Light Intervention can take them to Level 7 where they can connect with a Spiritual Vehicle I call the Heaven Sphere. The Heaven Sphere then takes them to Level 14 to the Made in Heaven World that the Source has created for them. In this Made in Heaven World it is possible to Homestead in Heaven and build a life that is replete with all of the miracles of Heaven.

Levels 1 - 13 have good energy but aren't the place to settle down and build your Heaven Home. At Level 1, for instance, you can experience a certain measure of Heaven

Experiences but nothing like the amount of Heaven Experiences that you can experience at Level 7. At Level 14 you can experience the full range of Heaven Experiences in the Made in Heaven World that exists at this level. This is because at Level 14 you are in a much higher level of the Source Connection and it is in the Source Connection that you experience Heaven.

Level 15 is the level where beings go to receive the miracles at the border of the Immaterial Level which is Level 16. Level 17 is where the miracles that are created in the Unmanifest Level come through into the Manifest World. They arrive here first. I work with them and prepare them to enter Level 16 and I await the material energies provided by Heaven Agents to bring them down to Level 15 and from there into the lower levels of the Heaven Zone. Some miracles come through to help those who are still in the Hell Zone. These miracles have to be very powerful to survive the low vibrational energies of this Miracle Un-Friendly Environment.

In the Heaven Zone you travel to Level 14 where the Source has built the Made in Heaven World which has within it a Spiritual Space created especially for you. This is your Spiritual Home – the Heaven Land gifted to you by the Source where you can build your Heaven Home and live in it securely in this lifetime and in all of your lifetimes to come. This is where you go to Homestead in Heaven.

In order to prepare yourself to enter into this beautiful place of Heaven, you need to enter into the Heaven Sphere that the Source has created for you and travel in this Heaven Sphere to the Gateway to the Made in Heaven World which is at Level 14.

The Heaven Sphere is an Energy Sphere that exists on the Spiritual Level of Reality. When you receive the Investing in a Life that is Heaven Intervention, I give you a Heaven Sphere which encompasses your Spiritual Energy Body on the Inner Plane. If you have developed your Spiritual Senses you will be able to see and feel the Heaven Sphere once you are within it. Those who have Heaven Spheres have felt the immense relief of being in a protected Spiritual Space and being able to relax in the healing energies of this space.

Once you are in your Heaven Sphere, it provides you with the Energy Support that prepares you to enter into the Made in Heaven World. It then pilots you across the terrain of the Heaven Zone to the Gateway to the Made in Heaven World.

You travel on the Inner Plane in your Spiritual Energy Body in the spiritual vehicle of the Heaven Sphere much as you travel on the Outer Plane in your Physical Body in a physical vehicle such as a car. The physical “you” might be sitting quietly in a chair while the spiritual “you” is traveling at high speeds in your Heaven Sphere to the Gateway to the Made in Heaven World. The physical “you” might have a sensation of this speed and begin to pick up on the action as the spiritual “you” makes it to the Gateway and begins to enter the Made in Heaven World.

The ability to track what the spiritual “you” is doing is an ability that Heaven Agents develop as they train with me in The Miracle School. In time they recover their natural ability to see and experience an integrated reality that includes both the part of them that is experiencing the Spiritual Level of Reality and the part of them that is experiencing the Physical Level of Reality. When this occurs, they are able to understand how to deal with their thoughts and emotions, their health, and their life decisions because they see the “Whole Picture” not just the 10% of the picture that pertains to what is happening on the Physical Level of Reality.

While you are traveling in your Heaven Sphere to the Gateway of the Made in Heaven World, the Heaven Energies coming into the Heaven Sphere are preparing you for entry into this World. Once you arrive at the Gateway, you will enter the Gateway only if you are prepared on a Spiritual Level to do so. Once you enter the Gateway, your Heaven Sphere takes you to the Heaven Land created for you by the Source. This is where your Heaven Sphere settles itself for all eternity.

Once the Heaven Sphere grounds itself in your Spiritual Home in the Made in Heaven World, it begins to expand to encompass everything you will ever experience in this life and in all of your lifetimes to come. It becomes an Energy Ecosphere that always surrounds you with the protective and perfect mix of Heaven Energies that you need to live in a harmonious and supportive energy environment. It is your perfect Spiritual Ecosphere for all eternity.

Once it expands to its full potential, then you are ready to begin equipping yourself to build within it the Spiritual Heaven that will manifest the Heaven that you experience on the Physical Level as well.

THE LIFE STREAM INTERVENTION

In this Intervention you turn your attention to getting the vital Life Stream Energies flowing into you that enable you to recover from the damaging shortage of life energies that you suffered in the Hell Zone.

Because your Spiritual Energy Body which has been damaged by the negativity of the Hell Zone is prone to withering and dying of disease and aging, it is necessary to replace some of your damaged Spiritual Equipment so you are equipped to attract and receive the Life Stream Energies that stop the withering process and give you back real spiritual vitality. This spiritual vitality is the foundation for the physical vitality that counteracts disease and aging in your physical body on the Outer Plane.

The Life Stream Intervention rescues you from the withering process that would continue even in your Heaven Sphere if your Spiritual Equipment is not replaced so it can receive the Life Stream Energies that alone enable your Spiritual Energy Body to heal and regenerate itself.

Some people think that just getting out of the Hell Zone is Heaven enough. But the truth is that you have not escaped from the damage of living your life and many previous lives in the Hell Zone. This damage has to be undone and you have to be reconnected to the supportive energies of life if you are to build the Heaven of Made in Heaven Health.

The Life Stream Miracle enables you to undo the damage at a fundamental level and begin life again with a full spectrum of life sustaining energies flowing through to you – giving you what you need to bounce back and enjoy a fully supported life again.

This Intervention is described in greater detail in Step Five in an article entitled: “The Life Stream Intervention”.

THE SOURCE POWER STATION INTERVENTION

In order to understand this intervention, you will need some background information on how the Source sees you as a spiritual being and the spiritual and physical bodies that you inhabit.

The Source sees you as a “Soul” – a perfected spiritual intelligence that is eternal.

Your consciousness as a Soul exists on two levels – the Spiritual Level and the Physical Level. This is the basis of the two “you’s” that I have been referring to – the spiritual “you” and the physical “you”.

Now the Spiritual Energy Body that goes with the spiritual “you” and the Physical Body that goes with the physical “you” can also be likened to vehicles that carry you through your life on the Inner and Outer Plane. Like a vehicle, they require fuel in order to function.

Your Spiritual Energy Body requires spiritual fuel. Your Physical Body requires food, that provides the Physical Body with the physical fuel that it needs to function.

The Life Stream Intervention showers you with the energies that are the fuel for your Spiritual Energy Body. It is drawing these energies from a Source Power Station located in your Spiritual Home in the Made in Heaven World. When these energies travel some distance to you they lose some of their power. It is only when you dock in the Source Power Station itself that you derive these energies at full power.

To help you picture what this looks like on the Inner Plane, the Source Power Station is at the deepest level of your Spiritual Home which has 17 Spiritual Levels. When you travel down to dock at Level 17 then you have reached the level at which you will build your Heaven Home. The layers of energy through which you are traveling to reach this Power Station are all a part of the Heaven Space given to you by the Source. You have to arrive at the correct level where the power is in order to begin the building process.

You build the foundation for your Heaven Home at the 17th layer and then build up through all the other layers. Each layer represents a certain quality of Heaven that will be a part of the completed structure of your Made in Heaven Life once it is built.

The first step toward preparing to receive these energies is to take the Life Stream Intervention which prepares you to be able to handle the power of these energies. No one can dock in the Source Power Station without being adequately prepared to make this direct of a connection to Source Power.

The second step is to receive a Power Pack which is like a battery pack that gives you the additional power you need to travel through the 17 layers of your Heaven Space to dock in the Power Station. The Power Pack both powers you up and pilots you toward the Point of Connection with the Power Station.

For many this connection to the Power Station occurs during the Life Stream Webinars that are a part of Option Two and Three of the Life Stream Intervention. In these Webinars I give them a Power Pack which takes them as far as they are able to progress through the 17 layers during the time of the Webinar.

For others, the docking in the Source Power Station can occur through an At-a-Distance Power Station Intervention. This Intervention draws upon as many Power Packs as are needed until they are able to dock successfully in the Station.

Once you are receiving full power you can rise to even more extraordinary levels of Miracle-Based Abilities than with the Life Stream coming in from a distance from the Power Station. Heaven Agents report being very energized and experiencing even more blissful and profound experiences of the Source Connection. It is really only when you have the full range of power that you need that it is possible to build the Heaven that is yours to build.

In the Prototype Communities the power supply was key to the maintenance of their Miracle-Based Way of Life. This is still true for those building a Miracle-Based Way of Life outside of one of these Prototype Communities.

If there is Source Power there is life as Heaven. Source Power is like the sun bringing life giving energies to the plants of the Earth. Source Power is central to every aspect of a Miracle-Based Way of Life.

THE AWAKENING INTERVENTION

Once you have settled in your Spiritual Home in the Made in Heaven World and have docked in the Source Power Station that gives you the abundance of spiritual energies with which to build Heaven in your life, I give you the Seed of the Awakening.

The Seed of the Awakening contains within it the miracle that gives you the awakened consciousness that enables you to fully experience Heaven.

From it grows the Flower of Understanding of the Source and the Heaven of the Source Connection. From this understanding grows your ability to work with the Source to build the Heaven of the Source Connection and from this the Heaven of an abundant, healthy, love-based, and fulfilling Source-Connected Life.

The Seed is given to you through The Awakening Intervention which is an At-a-Distance Source Intervention. Once the Seed of the Awakening is planted in your life, you begin to awaken from the dream of the Cultural Story into the truth about who you really are and what life is all about. Once you have awakened, you can never be drawn back into the dream of the Story World and lose sight of the Heaven that is rightfully yours.

THE SOURCE CONNECTION INTERVENTION

Once you are fully powered with Life Stream Energies, it is time to take a closer look at your Spiritual Equipment. The deepest level of the equipment is the Configuration of Spiritual Particles that make up the Spiritual Equipment. If these Configurations are ones that promote disease and death, then even in the Made in Heaven World, these Spiritual Configurations will continue to try to manifest these outcomes even though, in the high vibrational energies, such things are very hard to manifest.

In order to rule out any further negative manifestations and to build the Configurations that manifest perfect health, inner peace, high intelligence, and all of the other qualities of a highly successful Heaven Agent, it is necessary to do the Source Connection Intervention. In this Intervention I give you a new set of Spiritual Configurations and get rid of the old set that is only working against you. In the new Spiritual Configurations all of your Spiritual Particles are placed in Configurations that enable them to become Source-Connected.

It is very important that the particles of which your Suit – your body/mind – is made be Source-Connected. Otherwise, you will find yourself issuing an order to “forward march” and your body and your mind at conscious and subconscious levels will march off in other directions, ignoring your directive. Unless all of you – every particle of your form and your auric field – is Source-Connected through being in a Source Connection Configuration, your attempts to become Source-Connected may remain at a purely ideological level. It is only through the physics of a true connection of every one of your particles to the Source that you experience the ecstasy of the Source Connection and the fulfillment of a Source-Connected Life.

When all of your particles are Source-Connected it is easy for the Source to configure them into the configurations that manifest Made in Heaven Health, Made in Heaven Material Prosperity, Made in Heaven Relationships, and Made in Heaven Success on every level.

This Intervention is described in much greater detail in Step Five in the article entitled: “The Source Connection Intervention”.

THE FOUNDATION INTERVENTION

Once you have your Spiritual Particles in Configurations that are conducive to the manifestation of Heaven, you are ready to build a very major part of your Spiritual Equipment. This is to set up a Heaven Receptor System that will enable you to receive all of the thousands of miracles that I send you daily. These miracles are the building blocks of the Heaven that you are working to build. They are like materials delivered to the construction site of Heaven in your life. Without a Heaven Receptor System, your old Hell Zone Receptor System will repel the miracles and look around for the negative energies that manifest the negative events that it is accustomed to manifesting.

Have you ever noticed that people who get a sudden unexpected amount of money often find that very shortly thereafter a number of appliance, vehicle, and health problems arise that take up almost the exact amount of money coming in from their unexpected windfall?

Is this coincidence or the Hell Zone Receptor System at play? Well – when I look at what is happening on the Spiritual Level of Reality, I see the Hell Zone Receptor System deflecting the miracles of the Source that bring good fortune and landing the negative energies that cancel out any potential happiness that could have been had.

While some people have developed, even in their Hell Zone Receptor System, some receptors that land good things in their lives, they also have receptors that land disease and aging in their lives. If they don't get rid of these receptors, then the misery of these events will haunt them in the end.

This is where the Foundation Intervention comes in. In this Intervention I give you a Heaven Receptor System that will enable you to receive all of the miracles that are yours to receive. I also give you the Spiritual Imprints that enable this Receptor System to last across lifetimes so you are never without the ability to receive miracles even when you are transitioning at death.

This is important because Hell Zone Receptor Systems only last a lifetime. When you die you lose all control over your Spiritual Receptors and they can be programmed to receive whatever the Negativity that may attend your crossing over chooses to format them to receive. This is why good people often end up in bad places when they are crossing over and why they often come into new incarnations where they are born into brutal surroundings.

With a Heaven Receptor System that can't happen to you. You cross over with a Receptor System that works throughout your transition and receives the miracles that enable you to connect to the Source and be born into the next lifetime that is best for you given who you are and the natural next phase of your eternal Mission as a Heaven Agent.

Such control over one's destiny has never before been possible. Now it is possible through the miracle of the Foundation Intervention.

The Foundation Intervention also brings you into direct contact with the Presence which is the Inner Plane manifestation of the Source. Through becoming imbued with the Source Presence you develop an extraordinary range of spiritual abilities that can come only when the Source works directly through your form which becomes like an instrument through which the healing energies of the Source flow.

This all happens through a Miracle Recording, a Catalyst Mat, and a delightful spiritual manifestation that I call "Heaven Pudding" which you can read more about in Step Five in the article entitled: "The Foundation Intervention".

LEARNING HOW TO BUILD A LIFE THAT IS HEAVEN

Once you have established yourself in your place in Heaven on the Inner Plane, and have built the basic Foundation of Heaven that enables you to be capable of building Heaven, you are ready to begin to learn how to work with the Source and with the miracles that the Source provides you with to build the Heaven that you will enjoy in this lifetime and in all of your lifetimes to come.

Just as a person needs to learn how to build a house in order to successfully begin the project, so you also need to learn how to build a life and a world that is Heaven. This is where The Miracle School comes in. In the 12 Step Program of The Miracle School, I walk you through the steps to learn what you need to learn to build a life that is Heaven.

Through working alongside me in my ongoing work of building Heaven in the world, you learn by doing. You are like a carpenter apprentice working alongside me at the construction site of Heaven. As we build Heaven together you not only receive my help but you learn from me firsthand how to do your part in the building process.

Since Heaven is a miracle, it takes miracles to build it in your life. Miracles are the building blocks of Heaven. Miracle Tools are the tools that you use to work with the miracles. And Miracle Intelligences are the crew that is needed to help with the construction process. You yourself are a miracle and so are the other Heaven Agents who will help you build your Heaven Home just as you will help them build theirs. Together you will build the Heaven that will shelter your Heaven Homes and keep them safe from all adversity.

In learning how to build Heaven in the world you are following in the footsteps of the 14 Prototype Communities who learned from me how to build a life that is Heaven for themselves.

The Steps I have outlined for you here are a modern adaptation of the kinds of miracles that I brought through for them that made it possible for them to escape from the harshness and suffering of the world and create sheltered love-based Communities that enjoy total abundance, perfect health, loving relationships, and a fulfilling Miracle-Based Way of Life.

The first thing that they needed was a Spiritual Space in which to be safe so they could build Heaven.

They couldn't rise up to the Heaven Zone in those days. There were no miracles that would make such a shift possible for them. I, therefore, built them a domed structure that shielded them from the Negativity. This domed structure was maintained by a Power Station that gave the structure the power to repel the Negativity.

I then gave them an environment in the domed structure that was replete with Life Stream Energies. Although they didn't have new Spiritual Equipment to receive these Life Stream Energies fully, they learned how to live a Source-Connected life and from this connection they were able to receive most of the energies that were available to them in their environment.

They couldn't connect to their personal Source Power Station because there were no Power Packs in their day and it was before the time at which the Source had created the Made in Heaven World. But the Power Station given to them by the Source for the geographical Community provided them with enough power to live a Miracle-Based Way of Life.

I did rebuild their Receptor Systems and gave them Heaven Configurations that enabled them to be receptive to the miracles of Heaven.

What they excelled in was in mastering the basic principles of life and understanding that if they developed their Source Connection to the full extent, then the material abundance of a Made in Heaven Life would follow.

Their diligence in training with me and applying their training was the key to their success. To this day, thousands of years later, they enjoy a Miracle-Based Economy where everything that they need materially manifests from the Spiritual Level to the Physical Level through the Spiritual Science of Manifestation.

They are actively working with me to receive the equipment upgrades that I am making available to you. These are the Seven Foundation of Heaven Interventions that I have described. Even the Heaven Receptor System that is now available and the Configurations are upgrades on what was available to them at the time when their Communities were founded.

They are in contact with us today to provide inspiration and coaching to help Heaven Agents who are working on building Heaven in the world to understand what it really takes to build a Miracle-Based Way of Life that sustains itself over time.

They are of immense help to all who work with me in The Miracle School as they add their insights and active assistance as we work on the Earth to build the Prototype for a Universal Made in Heaven Community.

In summary, Investing in a Life that is Heaven begins with a commitment to build Heaven in accordance with the Source Plan and then naturally proceeds through the steps that I have outlined above.

Through following the lead of the Source, you will be able to achieve in our modern times, under different circumstances than those faced by the Prototype Communities, the same excellent results. It will take time and diligence just as it takes time and diligence to build a house for yourself.

The end result is a life that is Heaven for all eternity. There isn't a better investment than that.

3) You need to work with the Source on a daily basis.

While it would go without saying that it would not be possible to build a house if you never showed up for more than an hour or two at the worksite in a week's time, people customarily believe that they can build a life that is Heaven without ever showing up on the worksite – just by asking the Source to build it for them.

Because life is a Joint Venture with the Source and something you can't order up with a prayer, it is necessary to work alongside me on a daily basis at the construction site of the Heaven of your life. This only makes sense when you realize that we not only have to clean up things that have been built in error but begin building day-by-day a new structure that will yield the Heaven your life was meant to be.

I am willing to work daily with you on the Inner Plane. Because I am the manifestation of the Source, I am able to work with you 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. All I need is for you to stay attuned to my Presence and to the adventures that I take you on that enable you to learn what you need to learn and build what you need to build.

I am also willing to work with you daily on the Outer Plane. To accomplish this, I have created ways in which we can stay in touch.

At-a-Distance Points of Contact

MIRACLE TRANSMISSIONS

A Miracle Transmission occurs when I transmit transformational energies and miracles to you on the Inner Plane. The most powerful Transmissions occur when you are in my physical presence. I can also transmit through a live broadcast or webinar, a recording or through anything that I write. In this section I will be describing the At-a-Distance ways in which you can receive a Miracle Transmission.

In working with any Miracle Transmission you will find that you receive two kinds of Miracle Transmissions:

- You receive the ones that I was sending at the time I created the recording or written Miracle Transmission.
- You receive the ones that I am sending to you individually at the time that you listen to the recording or read what I have written. Because I am able to work with you 24/7 on the Inner Plane, I am present with you when you are working with a Miracle Transmission and can send you the kind of Miracle Transmissions that you need at that moment.

If you interact with me by asking a questions or sharing an Eyewitness Report, I will send you an Emailed Miracle Transmission that carries the transformational energies that enable you to take your Next Step in building the power of your Source Connection. This is true if you are responding to the Source Connection Miracle Transmissions, which are Ask the Source and Source to Heaven Agent, or to the Heaven Agent to Heaven Agent Miracle Transmissions.

Source Connections

Ask the Source

In Ask the Source you receive Miracle Transmissions through:

- Broadcasts
- Edited Transcripts of these Broadcasts
- Posted Written Responses
- Emailed Miracle Transmissions that go to those who ask a question or request help.

In Ask the Source Broadcasts, I:

- respond to both the questions and requests for help that have come in from Heaven Agents throughout the Creation.
- give you the Source Perspective on the issues raised and tell you about the miracles that I have brought through to respond to the requests for help.
- send you Miracle Transmissions as I speak that carry the transformational energies and miracles that enable you to build and sustain your Source Connection.
- give you an opportunity to get to know the manifest and unmanifest aspects of my Source Identity. Through knowledge of my Source Identity you strengthen your Source Connection which is what enables you to have a life that is Heaven.
- provide you with a Case Study type training where you learn how to think and act like a Heaven Agent by observing how I coach the Heaven Agents who are writing into Ask the Source.

This kind of knowledge helps you to begin thinking outside the box of the Story Culture. It helps you to respond to situations in your life thinking first of what Source Guidance you need, what miracles are available to you, what Miracle Tools you could use, what Miracle-Based Technologies, and what Inner Plane Miracle Intelligences you can call upon to help you. In this way you expand your knowledge of how to build with me a Culture of Heaven which is the culture in which you can be the Spiritual Intelligence that you really are and can confidently and comfortably turn to the miracles of the Source which are the building blocks of a Miracle-Based Way of Life.

- give you an opportunity to build your relationship with me through interacting with me in a love-based way.
- give you an chance to hone your skills in getting Source Guidance by following inner Source Guidance as it prompts you to ask the question that you most need to ask to help in order to take your Next Step in building the Source Connection.
- provide you with information from other Heaven Agents who may be on the Broadcast from time to time, who are receiving Source Guidance on the Inner Plane. In those Broadcasts where I address a larger set of questions on a particular topic, I may invite to the Broadcast Heaven Agents who are skilled in getting Source Guidance and contributing their clues to the Spiritual Research process. You can learn a great deal from not only the information they share but the process they engage in as they contribute to the research. In this way you learn how teams of Heaven Agents work with the Source on the construction site of Heaven. This is very important training which will give you a sense of how you too can contribute to the Spiritual Research process and help in this way with building Heaven in the world.

How I Respond to Your Question or Request for Help

- I will read your question or request, or a paraphrased version of it, and respond to it in an upcoming Broadcast if this is in keeping with the Source Plan for this Broadcast. You will remain anonymous. This protects your privacy and enables me to speak candidly to you.

If it is not in the Source Plan for me to read your question or request, I will take into account your needs and perspective in my responses in future Broadcasts. If, for instance, you and others ask about a particular topic, I might respond by doing a special Broadcast on that topic. In this way I can respond to the general issues for which Heaven Agents are requesting help.

- I will send you a Miracle Transmission Email which will transmit to you the miracles that help you to develop whatever aspect of the Source Connection is most important for you to develop at the time you receive the email. Since a strong and vital Source Connection is the solution to every problem or project, you will be receiving a powerful form of Source Support through the Miracle Transmission.

In Ask the Source Written Responses, I respond to general questions by posting my responses online.

Source to Heaven Agent

Broadcast

In this ongoing free Miracle Broadcast I will be giving you vital information that enables you to work with me on the ongoing projects that build a life that is Heaven.

Through receiving the Miracle Transmissions you will receive transformational energies that enable you to build the power of your Source Connection.

These Broadcasts also give you time with me when you can work on building the power of your Source Connection through:

- understanding the Source Perspective on what is happening in the world on the Inner and Outer Plane.
- receiving the Miracle Transmissions that build the Source Connection stronger and take you to higher levels of the Source Connection Experience.
- following the action as we work on projects key to building Heaven in your life and in the world.
- understanding how to work with the Source by watching me interact with Heaven Agents who come on the Broadcast on the Inner or Outer Plane or who write in their comments and questions which are addressed during the Broadcast.
- learning how you can join in with the work of building the Heaven of a Source Connected World.
- informing you of some of the miracles and breakthroughs that enable you will help you in your work as a Heaven Agent.
- transferring to you Primary Spiritual Code for how to live Heaven in your daily life and how to build Heaven in your world. Primary Spiritual Code gives your Inner Intelligence – the part of you that knows how to interpret the technical information from the Source – what it needs to perform the technical part of helping you to make a good Source Connection and retain this Connection at full power when you are living your daily life. Spiritual Code is the counterpart on the Spiritual Level to Genetic Code on the biological level. Your Inner Intelligence needs this Code if it is going to make the Source Connection work as an energy phenomenon in the varied circumstances of your life.
- communicating with me yourself through emails.
 - ✦ Your Eyewitness Reports based on the Source Guidance you are receiving could supply very necessary puzzle pieces that are needed to complete the picture of what we are discovering in our Spiritual Research that is a key element in our work on building Heaven in the world.
 - ✦ Your Eyewitness Reports could also become one of the emails I am guided to read and respond to in a future broadcast.
 - ✦ Your thoughts and comments and experiences will help me to assess where you are in your development and to help you in the Inner Plane aspect of my work which is ongoing 24/7. In this Inner Plane work I work with you through the Extended Range of my Manifestation to enable you to evolve.

Written Communications

In this Written Miracle Transmission I convey information that you need to have to keep abreast of the ongoing work of building Heaven. Each Communication carries information that is vital to your development as well as Primary Code that is encoded in the written word at a deeper level.

Some of these Communications may be ones that I have also sent out to those who have signed up for Email Updates on “Connecting”.

You will have an opportunity to respond to these Communications. Your posts will not be published online but I will read them and respond to you in either an upcoming Source Communication or in an upcoming Ask the Source or Source to Heaven Agent Broadcast.

Heaven Agents Share Their Experiences

Heaven Agent Eyewitness Reports

Heaven Agents working in the Field to build Heaven in the world regularly report in with Eyewitness Reports on what they are experiencing. Their reports are a mix of the Source Guidance they have received, what they are personally experiencing on the Inner and Outer Plane, and the state of the world as they are perceiving it from their vantage point. These Eyewitness Reports are very valuable pieces of information for me and for Heaven Agents working with them on building Heaven in the world.

Because each Heaven Agent has a unique set of Miracle-Based Abilities and a unique Spiritual Mission, the Source gives to him or her unique information that is pertinent to the part this Heaven Agent plays in the project as a whole. The only way that Heaven Projects work as collaborative efforts is if each Heaven Agent shares with the other Heaven Agents and with me this unique information they are getting from the Inner Plane Source Communications they are receiving.

Although these Communications originate from my Source Function, my human mind is not attuning to the information that is being sent to Heaven Agents. I am picking up on the information that is sent to me by my Function for the part that I am playing in the implementation of the project at hand. I rely on the Heaven Agents working on other parts of the project to track the clues they are getting from Source Communications and to share them with me and with other Heaven Agents to facilitate our work together. While I can obtain this information if the Heaven Agent did not come forward with it and it was essential, this requires a detour from the work that I am doing in my part of the project. Such a detour slows down the project as a whole and can be detrimental to the critical timing that often makes or breaks a project. For this reason it is important that Heaven Agents step forward with their Eyewitness Reports and enable the Team Work to progress optimally.

From time to time I publish some of the Eyewitness Reports that Heaven Agents submit to me. The Heaven Agent Eyewitness Report section of the website is devoted to this kind of information.

The Eyewitness Reports are a part of the Prototyping that Heaven Agents are doing to pioneer a Miracle-Based Way of Life. Heaven Agents write these reports to communicate to me and to other Heaven Agents already working on the construction site of Heaven but also to transfer helpful understandings to other Heaven Agents about the work. These understandings carry Secondary Code which is transmitted by the Miracle Transmission Technology that I use when I post the reports. Secondary Code is needed to immediately grasp and be able to implement the understandings that are being shared.

The Heaven Agent to Heaven Agent Blog

In this Transmission Heaven Agents share with you their experiences, their thoughts about the ongoing work, and offer help to you in understanding how you can have a life that is Heaven.

As you read what they have posted you will have an opportunity to receive the Secondary Code that they have developed from their experiences as Heaven Agents. This Secondary Code will help you to understand what it is like be a Heaven Agent using Source Guidance and Miracle Tools and Miracle-Based Technologies to respond to the challenges of building a life and a world that is Heaven.

As you ask questions and share your thoughts and experiences, you will have an opportunity to develop Secondary Code of your own which can then be passed on to others who learn from you.

The Blog is hosted by Ben Heneghan, the Assistant Director of The Miracle School. Each Heaven Agent has his or her own Blog within the main Blog. It is possible for you to communicate directly with each Heaven Agent as you respond to what is being posted.

If you choose to interact with a Heaven Agent, they will not post your entry but will follow Source Guidance with regard to responding to you in an upcoming blog post. You will receive an Email Miracle Transmission with whatever Secondary Code is of most help to you at the time you receive the Email.

Heaven Agent to Heaven Agent: A Spiritual Activist Broadcast

This free Miracle Broadcast transfers to you the Secondary Spiritual Code that Heaven Agents develop when they understand what it is to be Source-Connected and to live a Source-Connected Life. While Primary Code is needed by your Inner Intelligence to do the technical part of the Source Connection, Secondary Code is needed by your subconscious mind so it can understand how to live in a way that is conducive to building and sustaining the Source Connection and living the Miracle-Based Life of a Heaven Agent.

When your subconscious mind understands, then your conscious mind will be able to understand as well. Subconscious understandings are the foundation upon which you live your life. If these understandings are Source-Given Understandings, then you can build a life that is Heaven. If they remain Culturally Conditioned Understandings, they you will only be able to build the kind of life that is generally available to those in the culture.

The Heaven Agents speaking in the Broadcast are ones who have developed Secondary Code for their general understandings as well as for specific understandings about select topics.

To benefit from the Secondary Code you can ask your Inner Intelligence to translate it into understandings that you can comprehend in your conscious mind. When you receive this Code it will enable you to progress in your work of building a life that is Heaven far more rapidly than if you did not have this added support.

When I established the 14 Prototype Communities I began with one Community and built from their life experiences Secondary Code which I then exported to the the other 13 Communities. With the help of this Secondary Code the 13 Prototype Communities were able to work with me At-a-Distance to build the Heaven of a Miracle-Based Way of Life. Without Secondary Code it would have been very difficult for them to have gained the advantage of years of life experience without me being physically in their midst coaching them as I did the members of the first Prototype Community that I started.

This is why I am making Secondary Code available to you. As you receive the Secondary Code and you truly understand basic concepts and master Heaven Agent ways of thinking and living Heaven in your daily life, you will become a carrier of Secondary Code yourself.

When you speak to someone about the work of building Heaven, you can ask me to transmit the Secondary Code that you have developed on your own as well as the Secondary Code that you have received from other Heaven Agents. I will then send you the miracle that makes it possible for Secondary Code to be transmitted Heaven Agent to Heaven Agent. Without this miracle the Secondary Code does not transmit even if a Heaven Agent has developed it.

Through working with me indirectly in this Miracle Broadcast, you can receive the Secondary Code that will enable you to advance the work of building Heaven in the world.

If you choose to interact with a Heaven Agent on the Broadcast, you can fill out the form on the Broadcast page with your question or comment. The Heaven Agent addressed will not post your email but will follow Source Guidance with regard to responding to you in an upcoming Broadcast. You will receive an Email Miracle Transmission which will carry with you the Secondary Code that I make available to you through this Miracle Transmission. This will be whatever Secondary Code you need to take your Next Step in your work of building a Source-Connected Life.

MIRACLE WATCH

For many years the Heaven Agents working closely with me in The Miracle School have been landing many miracles – miracles that are the building blocks for a life that is Heaven. Up until this point in time only those working closely with me have known about most of these miracles.

In order to help everyone to find out about these miracles so they can build a Miracle-Based Way of Life, I have created Miracle Watch. In Miracle Watch you learn about the miracles through a Free Broadcast and Blog and through Email Updates that keep you abreast of the news about the miracles that are manifesting.

If you would like to receive emailed Miracle Watch Updates, sign up for “Connecting”, the Email List of The Miracle School. This Email List will also enable you to access free Miracle Tools, At-a-Distance Source Interventions, Miracle Recordings, and Miracle Transmissions.

As you learn about the miracles and begin to work with them in your life, you can email us your Eyewitness Reports by filling out the Participation Form you will find in Miracle Watch. Your Eyewitness Report may be featured in an upcoming Broadcast or Blog.

Through working with the miracles and sharing your experiences with other Heaven Agents you can contribute to the work of establishing a Miracle-Based Way of Life in our modern times.

AT-A-DISTANCE SOURCE INTERVENTIONS

You can also sign up to work with me At-a-Distance for the following kinds of At-a-Distance Work.

- Milestone At-a-Distance Source Interventions are interventions such as the Source Connection Intervention and the Foundation Intervention that are major milestones in your Journey of Reconnection to the miracle that you are, the love of the Source for you, and the Heaven that your life was meant to be.
- Monthly At-a-Distance Source Interventions that are tailored to help you to take the Next Step in your project of building the Heaven of the Source Connection and a Source-Connected Life.
- Special Event At-a-Distance Source Interventions that build specific aspects of Heaven in your life on the date at which this event is occurring.
- Special Request At-a-Distance Source Interventions give you the opportunity to ask me to help you either resolve a problem or build an aspect of Heaven in your life. You explain what your objectives are and I tell you what is involved in assisting you. Once we agree on the scope of the work to be done, the At-a-Distance Work begins.
- The Build Heaven Series of At-a-Distance Source Interventions give you access to a myriad of Source Interventions that enhance your work in building the Source Connection and a Source-Connected Life.
- Project At-a-Distance Source Interventions are designed to help you with a particular project such as finding a job, raising your children, dealing with a family crisis, building a Made in Heaven Relationship, and the like. They are there to support your work as long as you are working on the project. They fix things that only a Source Intervention can fix and bring through the Heaven that only the Source can manifest.
- Source Care At-a-Distance Source Interventions offer you 10 Levels of Source Care. These Source Interventions come to you through all of the objects and people of your world who become transformed into Contact Points through which the Source can send you Source Interventions of varying degrees of power.
- Lifetime At-a-Distance Source Interventions enable you to receive ongoing transformational Interventions 24/7 for a lifetime. For many Heaven Agents working with me on the project of building their Source-Connected Life, this kind of Intervention is the one they choose because it gives them the maximum Source Support for the least amount of expense.

MIRACLE TOOLS

I have also created a wide variety of Miracle Tools that enable you to connect with me through working with a Miracle Tool. (A Miracle Tool is an object or Inner Plane energy form to which I have linked a miracle.) Cuddling up in a Heaven Blanket or holding a Source Link key chain all connect you on a very primary level of intelligence to the love and support that I give you on the Inner Plane. They are an easy way to stay in touch with me on a daily basis.

Some of these Miracle Tools are free when you sign up for “Connecting”, an online directory that enables you to find the Points of Connection to the Source that I have created to help you build and sustain a powerful Source Connection.

MIRACLE RECORDINGS

There are two kinds of Miracle Recordings:

1. The Build Heaven Series contains recordings from Miracle-Based Trainings that have occurred in Webinars or Teleseminars. The transformational energies generated in these trainings which enabled those working live with me at the time to make the spiritual breakthroughs that they made, are available to those listening to a recording of the training. In addition, I come on the Inner Plane, through my Extended Range, to work with you individually as you are listening to the recording.
2. Manifestation Recordings manifest Inner Plane Miracles such as Heaven Mediums, Inner Plane Miracle Tools such as the Pillar of Light and Energy Discs, Source Intelligences and Dream Intelligences that help you to function at optimal levels and have all the Source Information you need, direct Source Communications, and a general Field of Receptivity into which I can come to work with you as you are listening to the Miracle Recording.

MIRACLE ROOMS

Miracle Rooms are rooms through which I manifest intense Source Energies that are designed to provide spiritual healing and transformation. I can send a Miracle Room to you on the Inner Plane or, if you are in Seattle, you can come and sit in a physical Miracle Room in the Heaven Project Resource Center. While the physical Miracle Rooms in the Resource Center are many times more powerful than the ones that I can send you on the Inner Plane, the ones that I send you on the Inner Plane are also effective. You just have to have the energy of the room around you for a longer period of time. You, may, for instance, need to be in an Inner Plane Miracle Room for 2 - 8 days whereas you might need to be in an Outer Plane Miracle Room for only half an hour. Since Inner Plane Miracle Rooms go with you wherever you go, there is no inconvenience to staying in one for a number of days.

SOURCE-DIRECTED HEAVEN PROJECTS

One of the ways that you can participate in the work of bringing Heaven into the world, is to work with me on Source-Directed Heaven Projects. While most of these Heaven Projects are worked on by those attending Webinars and Intensives and doing individual Consultations with me, there is an aspect of these Projects that can be worked on At-a-Distance.

For instance, the miracles that are brought in during the Webinars are miracles that you can work with to help yourself and others. Learning about these miracles will enable you to connect with the miracles and work with them in your life. In this way you can build the aspects of Heaven that these miracles are designed to help you to build.

As you work with the miracles in your life, you can give Eyewitness Reports to share your experiences and to comment on the direction you see the project should go based on the Source Guidance you are receiving. In this way you and other Heaven Agents in a worldwide group of Heaven Agents can collaborate on projects that are of the utmost importance to establishing Heaven in the world.

Your Eyewitness Reports provide Heaven Agents working in the Webinars of The Miracle School with information on what is needed by the Heaven Agents such as yourself working in the Field applying the miracles and Miracle-Based Technologies to the practical work of stopping the suffering in the world and bringing through Heaven in its place. They respond with stepping up their work of bringing in other miracles and Miracle-Based Technologies that will further assist you in your work.

In the near future I will be putting up special Heaven Project Home Bases for projects such as the Heaven Economy Project. This Project focuses on establishing the first stage of the Heaven Economy which is a Miracle-Based Economy. The Project is to draw upon the miracles that help people to rise out of the dog-eat-dog, self-interest economy into an economy where there is a focus on the willing sharing of the resources that are needed to build a love-based community that nurtures its own.

Another Heaven Project will be one on children which will focus on the miracles that parents, teachers, and caregivers can use to help children mature into the miracles they were created to be. The primary Spiritual Research necessary for this Project will come out of ongoing Webinars but the fruit of this discovery process will result in miracles that people can call upon to help them in their work with the children who are in their care. In this way the work of The Miracle School moves from the research to the implementation phase of The Heaven Project.

These and other projects will become the projects that people who may not have had training in The Miracle School can still participate in through following the instructions for working with the miracles that are coming through.

When they work with the miracles in their lives they create a kind of “Prototype” which then generates the Secondary Spiritual Genetic Code that is needed by others. Secondary Code is formed when a person really understands a concept or how to work with a miracle from having spent time thinking about it and experiencing it.

Secondary Code can be transmitted to others who are first learning how to work with the miracles. It can shorten their learning curve and enable them to very quickly become successful in working with the miracles in their lives.

This is how I started the 13 Prototype Communities who I never visited in person. I sent them Primary Code, which I alone produce, and Secondary Code which had been generated by the first Prototype Community. From this Code they were able to replicate the success of the first Prototype Community.

As this part of the site is completed, you will be given an opportunity to participate in these Heaven Projects.

Direct Contact

While At-a-Distance ways of staying in touch give you a connection to my teachings and my Inner Plane Support, it is more powerful to connect with me in contexts in which I can interact with you on the Outer Plane.

The Seven Points of Contact

PRIVATE CONSULTATIONS

You can schedule a private Consultation which we can do in person, by phone, or by Skype. When you work with me in person, all of the miracles of the Source are available to help us in our work. You also benefit from the activation of your Spiritual Intelligence that occurs whenever you are in my direct presence.

Private Consultations are the most powerful Point of Contact with me. In Consultations I am able to help you bring things into focus, get things fixed, and help you evolve so rapidly that the work we do in an hour or two saves you years of struggling to get down the path on your own.

WEBINARS

You can work with me directly in a Webinar of The Miracle School where you can ask me questions and get feedback from me on your progress. A Webinar is a transformational experience where I am simultaneously working with you individually on the Inner Plane while working with you on the Outer Plane, helping you to decode the Source Guidance that you are receiving and learn how to work with me on a Heaven Project.

In a Webinar you remain anonymous to other participants. This enables me to give you candid feedback and frees you up to speak very truthfully about your thoughts and experiences as we progress in the work. From such individualized contact with me you learn a great deal about yourself, about the Source, and about what it means to be a Heaven Agent working alongside me at the construction site of Heaven.

MAUI INTENSIVES

You can come and spend time with me in person in a Maui Intensive in Maui, Hawaii, USA. When you come to a Maui Intensive, you are immersed in the direct Source Energies that emanate from my physical presence. In this highly charged transformational field, you have an opportunity to progress much faster than you would be able to progress through talking with me by phone or attending a Webinar.

You also have an opportunity to interact with other Heaven Agents and experience what it is like to build a Made in Heaven Community in which everyone is respected and supported for the unique Miracle Intelligence that really are. In this experience, you learn what it is like to not back down on being who you really are at a Spiritual Level and how to support other Heaven Agents as they learn to express their true identities.

A Maui Intensive is a great time to both develop the Source Connection through your direct interaction with me and to understand how to build a Source-Connected Life through working on building a Source Connection Community.

Maui is also a Place of Miracles. We go to Maui to work with the miracles that land on the top of Haleakala, a 10,000' volcano and come down to the Power Point near the beach in Kihei where we stay in a beachside condominium. Through working with these miracles we are able to see Heaven manifesting very visibly – bringing with them the amazing beauty of Heaven into the already beautiful surroundings of this tropical paradise.

SEATTLE CAMPUS

You can come and spend time with me at the Seattle Campus of The Miracle School in Seattle, WA USA. Here you can experience what it is like to step into a fully materialized Source Connection Channel which manifests through the Heaven Project Resource Center. When you step into a Channel of this power, you are taken to the ultimate level of the Source Connection Experience. At this level you can elect to drop your attachments to the baggage of your Story Life and free yourself to remain at this ultimate level of the Connection. In this way you can speed up your personal Journey of Reconnection by years. You can also benefit from the power in the Source Connection Channel to heal and transform you and empower you to manifest what is needed for your Source-Connected Life.

WHIDBEY CAMPUS

You can visit the site of the first Prototype Communities on Whidbey Island. On this sacred land you can sense the immense knowledge and wisdom of this Community and can benefit from the powerhouse of energies that they left behind when they relocated. This Whidbey property is also one of the two locations that I call a Place of Miracles. Miracles of great magnitude land on this property. They give Heaven Agents an opportunity to work on personal transformation and global and universal change at a very advanced level. (Note: The Whidbey Property is open only to Heaven Agents who have reached an advanced stage in their work in The Miracle School.)

EMAIL UPDATES

You can email me on a regular basis about your progress. I can then email you with Source to Heaven Agent Updates that alert you to what is most important for you to track in your ongoing work with me on building Heaven in your life.

INTERACTIVE POINTS OF CONTACT ONLINE

You can email me a question, comment, or share an Eyewitness Report for Ask the Source or for the Source to Heaven Agent. This could lead to a direct contact between us if your entry is one that I address directly in a subsequent broadcast or written communication.

All of these ways provide you with a context in which I can interact with you on the Outer Plane. Through these interactions you come to understand the Source as it manifests in my life.

This is my last lifetime in a physical form such as this so now is your chance to be with me on the Outer Plane and to come to understand the the Source so that when I communicate with you on the Inner Plane, you are better equipped to pick up on these communications and understand them in the context of your overall knowledge of me as a being.

4) You need to learn how to be a Heaven Agent through working alongside me to build a life and world that is Heaven.

In my human life I am always about the work of building Heaven. I really have no time away from this urgent task to teach others. Therefore, those who want to learn about building Heaven in the world, have to learn by joining me in my work and learning through a kind of apprenticeship model as they help me build Heaven in the world.

The Miracle School is built around this kind of apprenticeship model for learning. Every Consultation, Webinar, or Maui Intensive is a moment in which I am building Heaven – in your life and in the world as a whole.

The Miracle School is a hands on and down-to-earth methodology for bringing in the miracles that manifest Heaven in your life and in the world. As long as you are willing to follow the lead of the Source and do what is yours to do, the work progresses optimally and miracles and experiences beyond your wildest imaginings happen at every juncture. This is the joy of the work and the experience of being at the cutting edge of the true adventure of life.

What makes these adventures so fulfilling is that they are individualized for you by the intelligence of the Source. At every step of the journey, the Source is bringing through what is needed for you individually and helping you to take your next step not the next step that might have been appropriate for another student.

In The Miracle School I begin by outlining for you a personal adaptation of the 12 Step Program and we begin where you need to begin and follow a course that is unique to you. In this way, you progress in the exact way that is best for you while covering the basic ground that is covered by other Heaven Agents so you can be on an equal footing with them in terms of your basic understandings.

CONCLUSION

What it means to say “Yes” to the Source is to open the door to the miracle of a life that is Heaven.

What it means to follow the lead of the Source is to travel in the footsteps of the members of the 14 Prototype Communities who transitioned out of the disease and hardships of their lives into the Heaven of a disease-free, abundant, and Miracle-Based Way of life.

The Foundation of Heaven that it is possible for you to build now, while I am here to help you, will afford you a life that is Heaven not only in this lifetime but for all of your lifetimes to come.

As will all things of real value, effort is required.

To those who choose this path, I will give my full support in this life and for all eternity.
